Republican Ideals Thwarted by Bar

Courts should guarantee good government, but don't.

A republican government requires the rulers to abide by the same laws as the ruled. People have endured centuries of abuse and fought long, terrible wars against tyrants to attain such an ideal. You see, rulers always want more lax rules for themselves. The Colonists established a constitutional republic after the bloody American Revolution of 1776. It limited government powers and guaranteed people's rights.

The US Constitution provides in Article IV Section 4: "The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government..." Florida's Constitution mandates in Article II Section 3: "The powers of the state government shall be divided into legislative, executive and judicial branches. No person belonging to one branch shall exercise any powers appertaining to either of the other branches unless expressly provided herein."

Throughout the USA, bar members as judiciary officers have infested every branch of government. So, the republics in the several states have declined. Our rulers now make bad laws and flout good laws, operating a cabal of lawlessness under color of law..

Integration of Bar with Judiciary: Bad

The Florida Supreme Court integrated the Florida State Bar Association (absorbed into itself) as its "official arm," The Florida Bar, in 1949 (40 So.2d 902, 1949 Fla.S.Ct 374). Over 1600 of the 2700 members had petitioned for integration. The bar has amassed a private fortune in excess of $35 million and engages in political activities.

Court.

Bar integration created a judicial oligarchy that destroyed the Florida republic in several ways.

1. Bar members work in every branch of government, in violation of the Florida Constitution's Article II Section 3 separation of powers mandate. 35 of Florida's Representatives (119) and Senators (40) belong to the bar. Executive and legislative branches have countless staff attorneys. The Constitution mandates that all judges, justices, State Attorneys, and the Attorney General must have bar membership.

2. This level of infestation of government by bar members has created a "good old boys" network of operatives which have made it difficult to eliminate control of the whole government by the judiciary and its members.

3. UPL, the Unlicensed Practice of Law statute 454.23, has created a legal services monopoly that has driven up legal fees so that only the wealthy can afford a lawyer's protection. People help one another with legal problems only at the risk of prosecution for felony UPL.

4. Judicial immunity has made the courts hopelessly corrupt. Judges flout the law and rules with impunity because the Judicial Qualifications Commission and Legislature let them.

Special points of interest:

- Integration of bar makes good government impossible.
- The bar in government creates a legal services monopoly.
- The bar corrupts judges and lawyers.
- The People MUST excise the bar from government.

Solution: Excise the Bar

To solve these problems, the people of Florida must: take action like this ten-step plan

1. Excise the bar and its members from government.
2. Hand control of licensing, discipline, and regulation of lawyers to the Executive Branch.
3. Make UPL apply ONLY to attorneys and those who claim attorney status.
4. Simplify the process by which people put evidence of judicial and attorney crimes into the hands of the grand juries.
5. Simplify the process of rehabilitating, indicting, and convicting rogue judges by stripping them and prosecutors of all forms of immunity for injuries to the people.
6. Require bailiffs to arrest judges who commit crimes from the bench.
7. Restore the right of the people to conduct criminal prosecutions of government employees who have injured them.

8. Establish penalties for violation of loyalty oaths.
9. Remove the words "and Government" from the Florida Constitution's Article II Section 5 public officer's oath. They create a good old boys network in government.
10. Make all public officers buy annual performance bonds against loyalty oath violations, and simplify the process of filing claims against them for injuries.

Of course this will require changes to the Florida Constitution and laws. Bar members will make this difficult. But, they will not make it impossible if YOU take political action NOW.

1. Send the foregoing agenda to your legislators demanding implementation.
2. Vote Bar Members Out of office whenever possible.
